WILLIAM MONEY.

[To accompany Bill S. No. 174.]

MAY 18, 1860.

Mr. TAPPAN, from the Committee of Claims, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 174, "for the relief of William Money," have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to report:

The memorialist claims compensation for forty-five horses seized under the orders of General Kearney, in California, for the use of the army. These horses he values at $100 each. He also claims for other property lost and consequential damages to the amount of $10,000. The Senate bill rejects all of the claim except compensation for the horses alleged to have been seized by General Harney; and it directs the Secretary of the Treasury "to inquire into the alleged seizure of certain horses in California, by the order of General Kearney, said to be the property of William Money, and the value of the horses thus seized, and which were appropriated to the use of the army of the United States under the command of the said Kearney," and to pay for the same.

Your committee, fully concurring in the views of the Senate respecting this claim, report the bill back without amendment, and recommend its passage.
